CLASSIFICATION CONTRIBUTE CLASSIFICATION CONTRIBUTE CHARGE STATE OF CONTRIBUTE CHARGE STATE OF CONTRIBUTE CHARGE STATE OF CONTRIBUTE CHARGE CH	· ·		Approved For	Release 2002/08/07 : Cl	/A-RDP82-0045/ R003	3300050008-9	FLY
PIC Airfield of SCHEEDITZ ALUATION See below PLACE OBTAINE: 25X1A THE OF CONTENT See below THE OBTAINED 25X1A DATE PREPARED 19 August 1949 25X1A 25X1A DATE PREPARED 19 AUgust 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHEEDITTZ (M 52/N-12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, ward destroyed. The weather station, previous flowers and an all station previous transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/N-12). The landing field was in good condition. The field and uncorapied was purried by Cerman "People's Police" and uncorapied was guarded by Cerman "People's Police" and uncorapied in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field.: 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHEEDITTZ dirfield was uncoupled between 1 to 20 July 1949. The sent of the field is apparently kept in a service shie order station. The field is apparently kept in a service shie condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. Agending to the previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirearft are unserviceable. This demand a betty regarded to condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. Agending to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirearft are unserviceable. This demand a betty regarded to condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. Agending to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirearft are unserviceable. This demand a betty regarded to condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. Agending to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirearft are unserviceable. Next Revisw Date: 2003					-COLITICL/	100
E OSTAINED E OSTAINED E OSTAINED ERRICES 25X1A DATE PREPARED 19 August 1949 1. All buildings at the SOPKEUDITZ (M 58/8/12) airfield, except the empty flight control stanion, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (IN 58/8/12) airfield was in good condition. The field, though unscoupled, was puared by German "People's Police" and by Soriet soldiers. The "Easthinen und Apparatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, iceated east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHEMUNTE dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Storest were not observed femding or taking off. To trin-engine sinverft, covered with targulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the coupsion of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a savvices ble condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sinveraft are unserviceable. This document is kertw regreed to the confirm to the two observed twin-engine sinveraft are unserviceable. This document is kertw regreed to the confirm to the two observed twin-engine sinveraft are unserviceable.	RY Soy	ioviet	;  	rmany	REPOF		25X1A
E OBTAINED DATE PREPARED 19 August 1949 25X1A ES 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 WPE) ARKS All buildings at the SCHKFUDITZ (M 52/F/12) sirfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPTZ (M 52/F 12). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet sold.eyrs. The "laschinen und Apparatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, icrated east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ airfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two brin-engine singerft, covered with terpaulian, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, sneepy for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a savinceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This decument is been a server and the latter of the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This decument is been agained to the Archivet of as Child States. Next Review Date: 2018	Air	 irfie	ild of SCHKE	NDITZ
E OBTAINED ERROES 25X1A ENCLOSURES (No. 2 WFE) ARKS 1 ENCLOSURES (No. 2 WFE) ARKS 25 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKTUDITZ (M 52/M/12) sirfield, except the empty flight control station, ware destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPTZ (M 52/M 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet sold.eys. The "laschinea und Apperatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Airczaft were not observed landing or taking of the mention of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a savrieeable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This document is betty repeded to CONNICTALLY and CONNICTALLY are underly to the brooks with the latter of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a savrieeable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This document is besty repeded to CONNICTALLY and CONNICTALLY are underly to the brooks with the latter of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a savrieeable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an eir unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. Next Review Date 2009	ION_S	See	below	MAR ABTRINE	NOW THE PLANE WHEN PERSON AND ADDRESS AND	7 25X1A
ENCIOSURES (NO. & WPE) 25X1A ENCLOSURES (NO. & WPE) ARKS 29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKPUDITZ (M 58/M 12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 58/M 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was quarded by German Theople's Police' and by Soviet soldiers. The "Laschinen und Appeardebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKBUDITZ dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Arcar's were not observed landing or baking off. The brinengine aircraft, cowered with tarpaulian, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Reports confirms that the cocupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-cocupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed being-engine diveraft are unserviceable. This decume is been reported to the border of Carl Hamilton and the letter of the condition of the apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-cocupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed being-engine diveraft are unserviceable. Next Review Date: 2008			M- 1 9		According to
ERENCES 1 ENCLOSURES (MO. & WYE) ARKS 29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the CCEKTUDITZ (M 52/M-12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PARTZ (M 52/M-11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was puarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet Soldiers. The "Laschinen und Apperatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, iccated east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SORKSUDITZ dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two brin-engine aircraft, covered with terpeulias, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report comfirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. The decument beartw regrated to the Archivist of he brief States. Next Review Date: 2038 Next Review Date: 2038					72 - 1		, i
ARKS 29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKRUDITZ (M 52/M/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPTZ (M 52/M 12). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "laschinen und Apperaisbau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, icrated east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tempenalins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This decamar is hearly regressed to the Archivist of its which distes. Next Review Date: 2008 The Archivist of its which distes. Next Review Date: 2008				25X1A
ARKS. 29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SURKFUDITZ (M 52/F/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/F 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though uncoupled, was quarded by German "People's Politie" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Maschinen und Apparatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, iccated east of the field.: 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ diffield was uncocupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. [Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the workher station. The field is apparently kept in a sewwiseable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirevaft are unserviceable. This dominant is hereby regressed to the Archivet of its taking States. Next Review Date: 2008 This dominant is hereby regressed to the Archivet of the taking States. Next Review Date: 2008			ENOLOSURES	OLG a Sylber
29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCEKTUDITZ (M 52/F-12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/F-11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Politer and by Soviet soldiers. The "Laschinen und Apperatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKBUDITZ diffield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. The twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a servicesable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This document is been regraded to the field of the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. Next Review Date: 2038
29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCEKTUDITZ (M 52/M 12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/E 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though uncocupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Laschinen und Apperatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEDDITZ dirfield was uncocupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Mircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with terpeulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireart are unserviceable. This document is bettly regarded to Constitute the two observed twin-engine sireart are unserviceable. Next Review Date: 2009)	***************************************		,	•
29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKTUDITZ (M 52/F/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/E 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Maschinen und Apperatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ airfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This document is keeply regarded to CONNECTION to the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	Months of the Control	Dec. 100 September					-
29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKPUDITZ (M 52/F/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/F 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Maschinen und Apperatebau" firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ airfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Mireraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report comfirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sireraft are unserviceable. This document is barely regreted to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	a merchangam and a second	AND THE RESERVE				·
29 June 1949 1. All buildings at the SCHKTUDITZ (M 52/F/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/E 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Maschinen und Apperatebau" firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ airfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Micraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report comfirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine sirefact are unserviceable. This document is batchy regaded to CONFIDENTIAL between two the latter of 12 for the field single field. This document is batchy regaded to CONFIDENTIAL between two many fields. CONFIDENTIAL beacture with the latter of 12 for the field of the Marchivet of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008				Meta-Control Control C	ATTENDED TO THE PROPERTY OF TH		i i
1. All buildings at the MERKPUDITZ (M 52/R/12) airfield, except the empty flight control station, were destroyed. The weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPITZ (M 52/R 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Inschinen und Apparatebau" Firm was housed in the well-preserved former bangars, iccated east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ dirfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. The trin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. 1 Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. Ascording to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine aircraft are unserviceable. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL because the Latter of the field since the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008				•
weather station, previously in the latter building, had been transferred to PAPHTZ (H 52/E 11). The landing field was in good condition. The field, though unoccupied, was guarded by German "People's Police" and by Soviet soldiers. The "Laschinen und Apparatebau" firm was housed in the well-preserved former hangars, located east of the field. 1 to 20 July 1949 2. The SCHKEUDITZ diffield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Alreraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpeulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine airgraft are unserviceable. This document is hereby regraded to condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine airgraft are unserviceable. Next Review Date: 2008	29 5	9 June	e 1949
The SCHKEUDITZ airfield was unoccupied between 1 to 20 July 1949. Aircraft were not observed landing or taking off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpeulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. Ascording to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine aircraft are unserviceable. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL is two transports to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	tran good by 0	ransfe ood co y Gern Taschi	r station, p erred to PAP ondition. T man "People" inen und Ann	previously in the PITZ (M 52/E 11). The field, though 's Police" and by	e latter building. The landing in unoccupied, was Soviet soldier	ng, had been field was in as guarded rs. The
off. Two twin-engine aircraft, covered with tarpaulins, were parked at the landing field. Comment: Report confirms that the occupation of the airfield has not changed since mid-June 1949, except for the reported transfer of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. According to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine aircraft are unserviceable. This document is hereby regraded to CONFIDENTIAL in two three with the letter of the first that from the Director of Confident multipoints to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	l to	to 20) July 1949	•		•
This document is hereby regraded to Confidential in the border of the weather station. The field is apparently kept in a serviceable condition to be ready for re-occupation by an air unit. Ascording to a previous report, the two observed twin-engine airgraft are unserviceable. This document is hereby regraded to Confidential in the letter of 12 for all the first from the Director of Cantri intelligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	om.	my ra	949. Lircra Tuo tuin-ena	ill were not obse line aircraft, co	හතුවෙන් දිකතනිද්තල ලෙන	n Coledna
CONFIDENCIAL In two dates with the letter of to be able to the biroctor of Carrel intolligence to the Archivist of the United States. Next Review Date: 2008	eppa re-o repo	rrie. e rep paren -occu port,	nas not control of the control of th	changed since mid- for of the weaths a servissable of an air unit. Acco	-June 1949, exc er station. Th ondition to be ording to a ma	cept for he field is ready for	25X1
CLASSIFICATION GOLDENGE ALTEROL/US OFFICE LES CITE			CONFIDERS letter of the Director of Archivist of	off I in the order to with the form the County I into Tigona to the County I into Tigona to the with a United States.	ie 111.11	TOTELL	25X
the way and the market was been been a surprise of the state of the st	, a weeks N		CLASSIFICATIO	" CONSTR	Mimrol/us offi	CILLS ONLY
				W		of the triangle of management of the control of the management of the con-	pathenegatività, so le represident